

THE ROYAL RED BIRD

A CHILDREN'S MUSICAL FABLE

by composer Angela Rice

ONE SMALL ACT OF KINDNESS CAN CHANGE THE WORLD

ComposeArts Proudly Presents the World-Premiere Production of
The Royal Red Bird Touring the Elementary Schools Throughout the Commonwealth in Spring 2025.

This magical and musical production will feature an exciting blend of singers, puppeteers, and dancers (from the Lexington Ballet). Interactive and fun, The Royal Red Bird provides opportunities for some students to join in the fun as part of the performance!

Children in Kindergarten through 5th grade will enjoy this 35-minute musical followed by a question-and-answer session.

Our production covers a wide range of Kentucky performing arts standards.

THE ROYAL RED BIRD

A CHILDREN'S MUSICAL FABLE

by composer Angela Rice

✧ Helping Others ✧ Being Kind ✧ Acts of Friendship

In the mysterious and beautiful Birdland, the Royal Red Bird watches over every song that birds sing all day long. One day, disaster strikes, and Henry – a helpful human – saves the Royal Red Bird. This act of kindness ripples throughout the natural world. Years later, when one of Henry's grandchildren falls ill, all the birds in the world race against time to find a cure, proving that one small act of kindness can change the world.

This important new work by Angela Rice and inspired by the illustrations of Lindsey Kiser celebrates kindness, working together, and the beauty of the natural world.
