Dear Lexington Singers,

What an extraordinary experience it was to share the premiere of Aeterna Via with you all! From the very first rehearsal, your enthusiasm and dedication made this premiere truly memorable. You embraced every new idea with eagerness, and your commitment to making something special was evident in every note, every phrase, and every rehearsal.

The weekend itself will remain with me always, from the thoughtful gift bag to our lovely stay at The Manchester, to the Key to the City now sitting on my office shelves as a beautiful reminder of your warmth, generosity, and timeless hospitality.

Thank you again for bringing Aeterna Via to life with beautiful artistry, heart, and joy-filled collaboration. It was a privilege beyond words to share this work with you, and I'm already looking forward to seeing many of you again in Paris for the European premiere, continuing this journey together!

With heartfelt gratitude and fond memories,

Elaine
