

Video 1: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=_m5k1L10WKk

Timestamp: 51:29-52:30

The video link provided for review features a clip from the Central Kentucky Concert Band's 50th Anniversary Concert, held on May 3, 2026, at the Lexington Opera House. The excerpt showcases the ensemble performing a section of "Armenian Dances (1972)" by Alfred Reed, highlighting the band's musical artistry, ensemble performance, and commitment to presenting high-quality concert band literature.

Video 2: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=_m5k1L10WKk

Timestamp: 1:25:55 - 1:27:31

This video link includes a collection of photographs highlighting the Central Kentucky Concert Band's history and community of musicians from the 50th Anniversary Concert, accompanied by the band's performance of "The Stars and Stripes Forever" by John Philip Sousa, the official National March of the United States. The audio and photographs are from the May 3, 2026 performance at the Lexington Opera House.

Photo CKCB: Group Photo from the 2025-2026 Season

Photo CKCB1: 50th Anniversary Concert Promotional Post, showcasing pictures of the band's history

Photo CKCB2: Lexington Mayor Linda Gorton declaring May 3, 2026, "Central Kentucky Concert Band Day" in acknowledgment of the band's longstanding history and impact on the local arts community

Photo CKCB3: CKCB former and current conductors