LEXINGTON

Welcome to LEXARTS hop

For over a quarter century, downtown Lexington has come alive and artful, as galleries and museums, artists' studios, and other creative spaces have opened their doors on the third Friday of every other month.

HOP is LexArts'—and Lexington's—signature event. We and the 30-plus partner venues you'll find listed in these pages welcome you to our inspired downtown!

HOP began as a way to encourage everyone to look at and buy art—and that is still its mission. Affordable, unique pieces in many media and in every genre are on view at HOP sites. Often you can meet the artists themselves and learn about their work first hand.

Collecting need not be mysterious or expensive. You can own beautiful objects on any budget. And discover fascinating friends and fresh ideas as well.

No one has yet to visit every HOP venue on a single Friday night. We don't recommend trying! Visit as many or as few as you like—and please come back the next time to experience the new exhibitions and new sites. This guide will tell you when the sites have regular hours as well.

We're thrilled to welcome Republic Bank as our new HOP Sponsor. With their help, we're not only able to produce this comprehensive 2020 HOP Guide, but also continue to bring an up-close and personal experience of the visual arts to Lexingtonians and visitors alike. Visit LexArts.org/HOP for more information.
